COMMUNIST DISORDERS EXPECTED

All Capitals of Europe Make Great Preparations to Cope With Likely Outbreaks

PEACE IS LOOKED FOR IN OLD LAND

Most Centres Will Permit Demonstrations as Long as No Violence Is Committed

(Associated Press)
LONDON, April 30.—Preparations to cope with the Reds and Pinks and other clashing hues, which are expected to dominate the May Day celebrations throughout Europe tomorrow, have been made by police and troops in the European capitals. In general, the Communists, Socialists and Laborites will be permitted to march and speak so long as the meetings are orderly, but warnings have been broadcast that any disorder will be met by vigorous action.

LONDON LIKELY QUIET
The most peaceful of all the European celebrations is expected here, although as usual extra police will be placed on the Embankment and other prominent thoroughfares. Paris took the view that anything might happen there and ordered thousands of troops and police to be under arms by daybreak.

The cabinet approved secret plans for protection of Paris and maintenance of order throughout the country, and authorities were confident any stealer eruptions could be prevented.

As a preventive the French today expelled twenty-two persons, accused of political agitation concerning May Day activities, and caused the arrest of fifteen, charged with inciting soldiers to disobey orders.

AIRPLANES WILL SOAR
Airplanes will fly over Paris to spot unusual gatherings and notify police.

Troops will remain personally in barracks, but thousands of other forces will be hidden in subways, courtyards and back streets, ready to rush to critical points.

Woman Passes as Man Painter for Half a Century

PHOENIX, Arizona, April 30.—Death here yesterday revealed that the life of William Leggett, interior decorator, known familiarly in St. Louis, Mo.; Haskins, Ohio, and here as "Billy the Painter," for half a century was a man's.

De Leggett died here Sunday at the age of sixty-eight, and it was discovered she was a woman. She had passed as a man since coming to New York from France as a girl in her teens.

General Election In New Brunswick Expected June 23

(Canadian Press)
FREDERICTON, N.B., April 30.—The date of the provincial general election is expected by rumor to be Monday, June 23, though nothing official has been announced on the matter.

BRITISH BEER DEBATE TAKES FUNNY ASPECT

Conservative Amendments to Proposed British Act Are Rejected by Large Majorities

HUMOR PREVALENT AS MEMBERS TALK

(Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, April 30.—The Conservatives lost their fight in the House of Commons today for all British beer. They had two amendments to the beer tax resolutions of the budget. One would diminish the increased beer duties proposed under the budget. The other would give a rebate on beer made from home-grown malt hops. But the Chancellor of the Exchequer was unimpressed. He would accept neither. Under a combined Liberal-Labor vote the first amendment was defeated by a large majority of 131. The second found an adverse majority of 128.

MILK, WHY NOT BEER?
The debate turned chiefly on the second. Bringing to the fore champions of pure British beer. One Conservative said his ideal was pure British beer for the British people. If it was essential that milk should be put on the market in a pure state, it was equally essential that beer should be marketed in a pure state. "To some people milk is a beverage, to others it is beer," he said amid laughter.

Mr. E. W. Pethick-Lawrence (Labor, Leicester West), financial secretary of the Treasury, declared the amendment was a violation of the trade treaty with Germany, the final provisions of which had been negotiated by the Conservative Government. The proposal meant treating the treaty as a scrap of paper. It was unwise and morally wrong, he said. He argued, however, that it would give protection to the English barley grower, not only

APPLICATION FOR PRIVILEGE IS APPROVED

Reeves-McDonald Mines Management Opposes West Kootenay Project

WATER NEEDED IN FERTILIZER PLANT

The information was given the Water Board of the province yesterday at the hearing of the application for a second impounding of the waters of the Pend Oreille River by the West Kootenay Power Company that it was the objective of the company to develop from these waters a total 300,000 horsepower, which would all be required for the carrying out of the plans of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company in the manufacture of fertilizers for the use of the farmers of the country in the increasing output of farm production.

The Reeves-McDonald Mines Company appeared in opposition to the application of the power company, claiming the need of power from the river to carry out the development of the mine, which the company is operating there.

New Zealand to Send Display to Big Grain Show

REGINA, Sask., April 30.—The Government of New Zealand has formally accepted the invitation of the World Grain Show to take part in the exhibition and deliberations to be held in Regina in 1932. New Zealand is the first of the British Dominions to accept the formal invitation to the conference. Produce which the country may enter in the exhibition will be taken from its large supply of wheat, barley and hemp.

FRESH MOVE THREATENED BY GANDHI

Economic Repercussions Now Following as Result of Revolt of Gandhist Groups

CONTRACT SANCTITY TO BE MAINTAINED

Development Expected Today When Mahatma Carries Out Plan at Present a Mystery

(Associated Press)
BOMBAY, April 30.—The civil disobedience campaign of Mahatma Gandhi, centering around violations of the Government salt monopoly and propaganda against foreign cloth is beginning to have economic repercussions. Reports have spread among salt merchants recently that the Government either would abolish the salt duty or reduce it. Hence they cancelled orders or took such quantities as were sufficient for current needs, with the consequence that salt prices rose in some districts.

GOVERNMENT DENIES
The Government today issued a communique denying that abolition or reduction of the duty was planned and urged traders to resume normal activity. The communique pointed out that salt can be removed from the salt works for only a few weeks before the monsoon season arrives, and that if business is held up a rise in prices—with possibly a salt famine—will follow.

From Manchester, the great cotton manufacturing centre of England, came word that manufacturers would insist upon the sanctity of contracts. The Manchester Chamber of Commerce was notified by the Bombay Native Piece Goods Association that a "very serious and alarming crisis has arisen for the mercantile community in India," and a cablegram from the Indian Association urged efforts to "bring about acceptance of national demands and effect amiable settlement."

The chamber replied that it could not intervene in political matters, but would insist that its contracts be honored. Continued on Page 6, Column 6

New Budget Of Ireland Is Healthy

(Associated Press)
DUBLIN, April 30.—Ernest Blythe, Finance Minister, in introducing the budget today in the Dail, announced no additional taxation would be required. The budget estimated expenditures for the forthcoming financial year would be £24,224,000, and estimated revenue would be £24,237,000 on the existing rate of taxation.

The Finance Minister stated taxes on all wines would be reduced by one-half.

The Blythe said the Irish Free State was prepared to pay up to £500,000 in liquidation of the Dail Republican bonds, held externally.

ITALIAN CROPS

ROME, April 30.—Signor Acerbo, Minister of Agriculture, told the Council of Ministers that Italy's farm outlook for 1930 was favorable. He predicted that the wheat acreage would be greater than in 1929, and said farmers were making better use of machinery.

By that time, too, it will be possible to weigh judicially the results of the London conference and to know the state of public opinion in the various countries.

Those who are directing the preparations for a world conference to seek reduction of armaments are convinced that a quiet period of several months will give opportunities to study new methods of approach to the Franco-Italian deadlock and assist the hunt for methods of reconciling the conflicting attitudes of the two states.

Watches His Favorite Crew at Work

MR. THOMAS IS HOPEFUL FOR FUTURE

Believes Reorganization and Rationalization of Industry Will Restore Industries

ALL NATIONS FACE WORKLESS TROUBLES

(Canadian Press Cable)
GLASGOW, Scotland, April 30.—"No substitute for efficiency has yet been found," declared Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Lord Privy Seal and Minister of Employment, addressing the Glasgow Chamber of Commerce today and frankly discussing unemployment problems.

"If the country is to pull through it is no good playing with the facts," he added. "Reorganization and rationalization are bound to increase the unemployment figures, but when they are completed we will be more efficient and the position will improve in the future."

MOTOR CAR TRADE

As an instance of the difficulties to be faced Mr. Thomas said six and a half million motor cars were produced in the world last year. America produced five and a half million. Britain produced only 250,000, and estimated revenue would be £24,237,000 on the existing rate of taxation.

No Intention of Shooting Friend States Accused

TORONTO, April 30.—Walter Oregor, thirty-one, charged with manslaughter of James Edward King in a grocery store at Mimico, on the night of February 27 last, was pronounced not guilty in Assizes Court today.

"Did you intend to shoot King?" asked Mr. O. W. Gauld, defence counsel.

"No sir, My God, no sir," exclaimed Oregor. "We were only joking with each other. I had just loaned him some money and he was teasing me about running away. My hand touched the gun and it went off. We were joking, sir. He was my friend."

Strong Fight Over Freight Rates for Eastern Provinces

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, April 30.—Montreal and Toronto, through their respective Boards of Trade, joined in opposition today to the application for lower grain freight rates for Saint John and Halifax. Briefs in opposition to the application of the Halifax Harbor Commission and the Maritime Board of Trade were filed before the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada. The Maritime ports are seeking a reduction in the grain rate from 25.5 cents per cwt. to 19.34 cents. It would apply only to the Northern Transcontinental Line.

MONTREAL OBJECTS
Mr. John J. Smith, acting for the Montreal Board of Trade and the Montreal Corn Exchange, submitted it would be unwise to upset the present rate situation existing between Canadian and United States North Atlantic ports. Such a thing, he believed would be followed by a corresponding reduction in the rate out of Buffalo, which would leave the relative rate situation on the same parity as before and the railroads in the position of absorbing considerable loss of revenue.

Mr. T. Marshall, transportation adviser to the Toronto Board of Trade, held the same opinion. Continued on Page 2, Column 4

BUILDING IN CITY PASSES MILLION MARK

Corporation Receives $60,000 More in Tax Payments Than in Similar Period in 1929

OVER 60 PER CENT OF BILLS MAILED

Building construction in Victoria totaling $1,033,475 was covered in 275 permits issued by City Building Inspector James Barr at the City Hall during the first four months of the current year.

Figures released yesterday reveal that in April seventy-three building permits were taken out for work which had a value of $87,830. It was during the month concluded yesterday that the million-dollar mark was passed in construction activity in the city this year.

The two largest projects in building started here since January 1, 1930, were the two-story structure of S. S. Krake & Company, Limited, on the northwest corner of Douglas and Fort Streets, at a cost of $130,000, and the new powerhouse of the Canadian Pacific Railway, on the southeast corner of Humboldt and Fort Streets, at a cost of $100,000.

Severe Quake Is Recorded as Off Coast of Japan

(Associated Press)
TOKIO, May 1.—An earthquake of unusual strength and duration was felt here shortly after midnight this morning. There have been no reports of casualties nor any great damage from the quake. The central meteorological observatory said the centre of activity was probably at sea, seventy-five miles Northeast of Tokyo.

The quake, which started at 12:58 a.m., registered on the seismographs for thirty minutes. It was perceptible to humans for five minutes. Scientists attribute the quake to activity in the "outer Tuscaraan earth-quake belt."

Dominion All Agog Over Proposals of New Budget Today

Excitement Runs High as to New Plans of Government as Told by Mr. Dunning in His First Financial Statement—Will Be Election Budget and Fate of Government Will Be at Stake

Tariff Changes May Be on Protective Policy Lines

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, April 30.—Tomorrow will be budget day. Perhaps at no time since the war, have pronouncements of a Canadian Finance Minister been awaited with so great expectancy. The revisions to the tariff and the other tax changes which Hon. C. A. Dunning will announce tomorrow afternoon will be flashed from end to end of the Dominion. They will be eagerly studied, not only by industry, but also by the rank and file of taxpayers.

MAY MAKE OR BREAK
In the House of Commons itself as crowded galleries look down on that resourceful minister from the West delivering his "first budget speech" in that place, there will be no little anxiety. This budget may mean a lot to the members seated within that chamber.

Anyone who has been around the Parliament Buildings since the Easter recess must have sensed the feeling abroad that this budget may possibly make or break the Government. It may be the last budget before a general election. It may send the Liberal party back victorious or it may send it down to defeat.

CHANGES EXPECTED
The budget will be prolific in tariff changes. It is claimed some will be higher, some lower. The year's activities of the tariff advisory board, the best advice of his colleagues in the Cabinet, the tariff experts of his own department—these have all been at Mr. Dunning's command.

With Washington putting up its tariffs and London talking Empire free trade, both capitals will watch what Canada does tomorrow. The capitals of many other countries as well will have their eyes on what is transpiring at Ottawa.

After the budget speech has been delivered it is expected the House will revert to other business, leaving the discussion of the budget document until next week.

PATHOLOGIST WILL WORK AT SIDNEY FARM

Mr. W. R. Foster Has Been Appointed Assistant Plant Pathologist of Province

Specialized in Field Crops

Mr. W. R. Foster has been appointed assistant plant pathologist for the province under the Department of Agriculture. He will enter upon his duties on May 19.

The new appointee is an excellently trained man in this line and brings to the position which he is to fill a wide practical knowledge. After graduating Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Mr. Foster took a post-graduate course and has now been for some time engaged in laboratory work in plant pathology in the University of Alberta, at Edmonton.

The research work which Mr. Foster has taken up will supplement the work which has hitherto been carried on here by the Dominion plant pathologist. Mr. Foster has given a great deal of attention to field crop diseases in his research work. In a large measure, he has been along the line of diseases of fruit, flowers and shrubs. Mr. Foster has given a great deal of attention to field crop diseases in his research work. In this connection he has devoted much time to smut in

Lumber Trade Is Planning to Cut Its Production

TACOMA, April 30.—Absolute curtailment of all night operation and reduction in the daytime output of the Northwest lumber mills is the only solution for the present condition of over-production in the lumber industry, according to opinion expressed at the monthly meeting of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association held here Tuesday.

While no organized action on the question was taken, plans for voluntary curtailment by the mills were outlined by the individual operators. Many of the mills now operating night shifts tentatively agreed to cut down to a single shift, six days a week, while some mills not now running nights, will go on a five-day basis.

As to preparations on the other side, the Communist organ L'Apostrophe promised a twenty-four-hour strike of thousands of workers. It is expected that hardly any taxicabs will run, while service by bus and street car is expected to be limited.

MAY BLOW OFF STEAM

In Berlin police decided to let the proletariat blow off steam so long as they are orderly. But forces of the law will stand ready to see the bounds of peaceful demonstration are not overstepped.

Russia, seat of Communism, has made plans for a big day. The streets will be decorated with red lights, flags and bunting, while tomorrow will be given over to parades, lectures, and other forms of propaganda.

Southeastern Europe reported arrests today of leading agitators as preventive measures against trouble tomorrow.

Austria decided to permit orderly demonstrations in Vienna and other large cities, but prepared to suppress any disorders. Hungary issued a decree prohibiting May Day demonstrations, so Labor organizations decided to stroll through the streets tomorrow wearing their best clothes and their party emblems. Police prepared a number of armored cars for use in case of trouble.

ARRESTS ARE MADE

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 30.—The police today arrested several Communists after discovery of Communist leaflets, calling on all workers to stage a demonstration tomorrow in the name of the unemployed throughout the world.

WILL NOT WORK

LIMA, Peru, April 30.—Omnibus and tramway drivers today notified the authorities they would not work tomorrow. The men said they wished to devote the day to celebrating May Day as "tribute to the victims of the Chicago tragedy."

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

MEXICO CITY, April 30.—Police have planned extreme precautions to prevent May Day disorders. Reserves will be stationed at strategic points and special care will be taken to prevent Communists from mixing with a union labor parade which is to march through the centre of the capital.

A twenty-four-hour nation-wide edict against sale of liquor and firearms will go into effect at midnight. Civilians found carrying pistols or other arms will be fined.

CLASH AT TOKIO

TOKIO, May 1.—Two policemen were injured in a May Day clash at Kawasaki, a Tokyo suburb, today. Police attempted to prevent a group of about eighty workmen, who were carrying handbills, from joining a May Day demonstration. In the scuffle several shots were fired, allegedly by the workmen, and the two policemen wounded. Eight arrests were made.

Tokio's May Day demonstration began this morning with a mass meeting at Shiba Park with 8,000 persons present. Ten persons were arrested before noon. Early today 200 known radicals were rounded up by police and temporarily held in custody for the day.

FALSE WAR ECONOMIES

"Every nation is facing unemployment, but every nation doesn't," he went on. "We are still suffering from false war economies. Business men are suffering because they made money too easily. Workers are suffering because they believed money was unlimited. It is no use spending money merely to find temporary work and create dead capital."

Strong Fight Over Freight Rates for Eastern Provinces

Mr. C. J. Burchall, representing the Halifax Harbor Commission, in addressing the board at the close of the evidence, said only through adequate railway connections and fair and equitable freight rates could Nova Scotia gain in trade. That province was too far removed from the rest of Canada, and it was necessary to bridge this gulf through the use of freight rates and proper connections.

The heavy plane was demolished, but did not burn.

TO WORK AT SIDNEY

The hearty co-operation of the Dominion authorities has been accorded in connection with this investigation. Mr. Foster will carry on his investigations in the Sidney Experimental quarters. The Dominion will afford every facility to him in the carrying out of his work at the Sidney plant. He will utilize the laboratory there in connection with his research.

CHECKING OF SMUT

That there is scope for such work is borne out by the results which have been achieved in the past in the checking of diseases which have been introduced into British Columbia had it not been for the timely action of the staff. Slag smut, which is costing the farmers of Australia millions of dollars to combat was discovered coming into this province and a stop was at once made with the return of the effected grain. This is one instance only where the good work of Mr. Eastham and his staff has operated to the advantage of the farmers.

SEEDING WORK ON PRAIRIES GOING AHEAD

Manitoba, though several points recorded traces of rain.

Heavy rains all through the night thoroughly subdued the first fires of the season reported yesterday from Stirling township, north of Port Arthur.

Wheat seeding and spring work in the Western Provinces is, on the whole, fairly satisfactory and in advance of 1929, states a report published by The Manitoba Free Press today.

REPORTS OF PROVINCES

The report, by provinces, follows: Manitoba—Wheat seeding 80 to 85 per cent complete. The supply of reserve moisture is just fair but only four points report "no reserve moisture," and all but one point report sufficient moisture for germination. At that time the power of a good start has been made with seeding and a little barley is sown. Saskatchewan—Wheat seeding is general throughout the province and is from 80 to 90 per cent completed. The moisture situation is the most critical of the three provinces, as fifteen out of forty points report practically no reserve moisture in the soil and ten need rain to germinate late sown grain. Seeding of barley and oats is only really beginning.

The report, by provinces, follows: Manitoba—Wheat seeding 80 to 85 per cent complete. The supply of reserve moisture is just fair but only four points report "no reserve moisture," and all but one point report sufficient moisture for germination. At that time the power of a good start has been made with seeding and a little barley is sown. Saskatchewan—Wheat seeding is general throughout the province and is from 80 to 90 per cent completed. The moisture situation is the most critical of the three provinces, as fifteen out of forty points report practically no reserve moisture in the soil and ten need rain to germinate late sown grain. Seeding of barley and oats is only really beginning.

SIXTEEN WAYS TO SERVE POTATOES

For a time we snubbed the potato rather rudely, in our zeal to banish excess weight. But now that strenuous dieting is no longer the fashion, potatoes are again firmly entrenched in our menus. Meals aren't meals, without them.

To make up for past neglect, I suggest that you send potatoes to the table in a constantly varying dress. Sometimes you will want the simple, mealy goodness of steamed potatoes or the fluffy whiteness of mashed or fried potatoes. Other times, nothing will fit in the menu so well as bursting baked potatoes, golden with butter and glowing with paprika.

With sweetbreads or a tiny chop you may prefer the daintiness of creamed or parley potatoes; with thick and juicy steaks, the heartiness of lyonnaise or O'Brien au gratin potatoes. Serve them scalloped, fried and broiled. For more elaborate dinners, have potatoes au gratin, in the half-sauce or French fried. Cheese combines delightfully with potatoes in various ways—potatoes au gratin, Chantilly and Delmonico all being favorites of mine.

It all depends upon the milk.

In all of these recipes which call for milk or white sauce, I have found that the quality of the milk is most important. If you use the best of creamy whole milk, pure and sweet, you can count on a delicious sauce. You can be sure of such results, by always using Carnation Milk. It is simply the best of whole milk from selected herds, with nothing added and nothing taken out except part of the water.

CHAIRMAN JAY OFFICIATES AT ANNEX OPENING

Auditorium Built in Connection With Sir James Douglas School Is Formally Dedicated

STAFF AND PUPILS FURNISH PROGRAMME

Dedicated to community interests of a varied character in the school district tributary to the Sir James Douglas School, Fairfield, the new school auditorium, built by the Victoria Board of School Trustees and furnished by the Parent-Teacher Association of the school, was officially opened yesterday afternoon by Mr. George Jay, chairman of the School Board, in the presence of Principal Wilson and staff, members of the School Board, representatives of the I.O.B.E., the Local Council of Women and the combined classes of the school.

Chairman Jay, on being asked by Principal Wilson to declare the auditorium open, stated that he had never been connected with a function which gave him greater pleasure than he then experienced in his capacity as chairman of the board, speaking at the same time on behalf of other members as well, while officiating at the opening of the auditorium which had been erected for the greater pleasure of the boys and girls of the school, their parents, Principal Wilson and his staff.

A LONG CONNECTION
Chairman Jay spoke of his long connection with school affairs in Victoria, and exhibited a shining implement, which he said some of the children might think of as a kitchen utensil for the turning of hot cakes and the property of the domestic science school. It was the trowel used in laying the foundation stone of the Sir James Douglas School. The speaker asked Principal Wilson to read aloud the inscription on the stone.

The Board of School Trustees of the city of Victoria to their chairman, Mr. George Jay, on the occasion of his laying the foundation stone of the Sir James Douglas School, October 5, 1909.

Declaring the building officially open, Chairman Jay said he hoped the boys and the girls attending the school would make the most of the auditorium and enjoy it, a hope that included the boys and girls of the future who would attend the Sir James Douglas School.

Principal Wilson, speaking to the assembled school children, asked them to show their appreciation of the action of the School Board in providing the auditorium, which they "had not the boys and girls of the future who would attend the Sir James Douglas School."

SONG AND DANCE
"O Canada" was sung by the pupils of the school, the school orchestra, consisting of ten pieces recently formed under the leadership of Mr. Green, played several selections; the senior students, coached by Miss Duncan, appeared in a Russian folk dance; there were two groups of songs by the leading school choir; a junior folk dancing class, and an Irish jig by Miss Smith, and a final song by the school choir, "God Save the King."

ASKS COMMISSION AGENT BE BONDED
Mr. H. H. Stevens seeks to protect farmers from defaulting grain merchants.

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, April 30.—Methods of protecting farmers from defaulting grain merchants were discussed in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. The question was raised during a discussion of the grain act by Hon. H. H. Stevens, Conservative, Vancouver Centre, who thought there should be some provision in the act for the bonding of commission merchants.

Mr. E. B. Ramsay, chairman of the Board of Grain Commissioners, thought commission men might be put out of business if they were required to put up higher bonds than now.

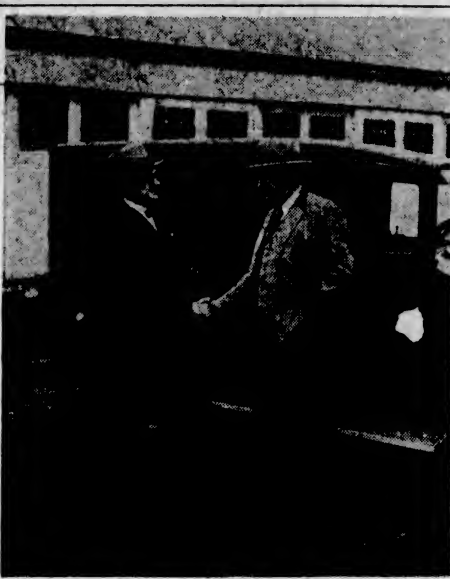

Doubt as to whether commission merchants served any useful purpose was expressed by Mr. E. J. Garland, U.F.A., Bow River. He said the business was dying out and wondered if the services performed by these men to the trade compensated for the losses sustained through their occasional defaultations.

The commission men were an important factor in competition with elevators, said Mr. Ramsay. Their operations acted as a curb on the tendency of elevator companies to increase their charges.

In this case, Mr. Garland said, it might be a good thing to raise the bonding requirement. Then those commission men who were able to make a profit from the business could still carry on and the farmers would be protected.

Forest Protection Work

THIS illustration was snapped on the occasion of a meeting between Mr. E. B. Shearman, of the Dominion Meteorological Service in British Columbia, and Mr. S. G. Smith, territorial vice-president of the Canadian Forestry Association. The two organizations work in close conjunction, as the interest of the association in weather conditions is second only to that of Mr. Shearman himself. The Canadian Forestry Association relays to the public through its many avenues of publicity the weather forecasts issued by Mr. Shearman, and during 1929 the driest and most hazardous season on record was robbed of much of its terror for British Columbia's woods by the timely and insistent warnings against carelessness with fire voiced by this association.

LUBBE CLAIM IS DISMISSED

Plaintiff Fails in Suit Against Esquimalt Waterworks in Supreme Court Here

COURT RULES NO CAUSE FOR ACTION

The action launched in the Supreme Court here by William T. H. Lubbe, son of the late Mr. Theodore Lubbe, widely known as engineer and manager at one time of the Esquimalt Waterworks Company, against the said company and its majority shareholders, was dismissed with costs by Hon. Mr. Justice Murphy, in a written decision handed down yesterday.

The plaintiff sought a declaration that the Esquimalt Waterworks Company was liable in damages to the sum of $90,000 for alleged breach of agreement made between the late Mr. Theodore Lubbe and the company in 1909. He claimed a half share in the sum of $90,000, which he said was owing, or alternatively, an equivalent share of any damages awarded against the company for alleged breach of agreement.

Mr. Lubbe further sought an injunction restraining Mr. J. A. Hayward and Mr. Ernest B. Halsall from paying further moneys to certain shareholders of the defendant company, and an order for the return of sums paid in this way in the past. The defendant company denied the existence of any agreement entered into by any executive of the company.

In dismissing with costs the suit, Mr. Justice Murphy said that, in his opinion, on the true construction of the agreement, no cause of action had accrued or ever could accrue to the plaintiff, W. T. H. Lubbe.

WIFE SUFFERS FOR 20 YEARS

Hope Abandoned Until Tanlac Quickly Ended All Signs of Stomach Troubles

Day after day come glowing reports of new conquests won by the amazing medicine—Tanlac—over stomach troubles and bowel disorders; of remarkable victories over cases of nervousness, chronic headaches and even rheumatism and neuritis. No wonder local druggists are loud in their praise of this remarkable medicine, so different in that it makes good all its claims.

In desperation after failures with all sorts of other treatments, hundreds here in this town, who thought they had to go on suffering to the end of their days, have taken Tanlac with results so speedily beneficial as to be absolutely amazing. Here's a recent case that tells the story of Tanlac in a nutshell. Mr. T. H. Bayes says: "After everything failed along K.C. Tanlac and I felt that I had quickly ended twenty years' stomach suffering for my wife. She eats everything now."

Tanlac is a real medicine—formulated according to modern medical science—that's the reason why it is just as helpful in stubborn unyielding cases as it is in mild cases. Find out about Tanlac for yourself—learn why it is being used by millions—why over 52,000,000 bottles have been sold. See how the very first bottle helps you and it must for every local druggist sells Tanlac with a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Accept no substitute—(Adv.)

Radiotelephone Link Effective With Powell River

The first radiotelephone link between two points in British Columbia will be opened today, giving the busy paper mill town of Powell River its first commercial telephone connection with the outside world. Victoria is included in the service.

To make the service possible, the fifty-mile gap between Powell River, on the Mainland, and Campbell River, on Vancouver Island, is bridged by radio. There are sending and receiving stations at both points, and connection with the B.C. Telephone Company's land lines at Campbell River makes possible a high-grade, long-distance telephone service.

For example, a call from Powell River to Victoria will come via the sending station at Powell River, through the air to Campbell River, where it will connect with telephone wires to Victoria. The user is in the same way as he would on an ordinary long-distance call, and the transmission is just as good.

Although opening commercially today, the service has been in operation, experimentally, for two months. It is hoped that this initial radio link will be followed by similar ones to other points where the installation will prove practical.

BURNED IN OIL

CHICAGO, April 30.—Two men were burned alive in oil early today in an explosion at the refinery of Dabros Products Corporation. Four others escaped unhurt, dragging with them a fifth, so severely burned he is not expected to live.

The spread of the blazing oil, following the explosion, for a time threatened a large portion of the Clearing industrial district. Officials of the refinery placed the damage at $150,000, including the loss of oil.

COOLING MOTH INFECTS FRUIT

Recent Shipment of New Zealand Apples Rejected for Infestation

The development of cooling moth in the apples which recently were landed here from New Zealand has led to the condemning of this shipment for use in the province of British Columbia. There has been a determined effort on the part of this province to keep free from diseases which may prove disastrous to the fruit industry. In the carrying out of this policy cooling moth has been one of the diseases against which the most careful care has been exercised.

An examination of the 2,500 boxes of apples from New Zealand which arrived in British Columbia a few days ago showed that there was evidence of this pest. An examination of the 500 boxes landed here brought forth the presence of the moth, with the result that the whole shipment has been condemned. The apples will not be allowed to be retained in the province.

In consequence of this the shipment will have to go on to the Prairies, where the rules are not so stringent, and where the cold weather of the Winters proves too much for the health of the cooling moth.

A HERO BOUNDS INTO THE BREACH

The political pot is boiling and bubbling like a witch's cauldron. There is a Dominion general election in the offing, and changing the figure, a black cloud, which may be charged with devastating electricity or laden with moisture sufficient to precipitate a deluge, is looming ominously over the eastern horizon. Mr. Mackenzie King apparently has not quite made up his mind whether it were better to go forth boldly and defy the wrath of the elements or wait for the possible chance of fairer weather.

There is no fear in the heart of the redoubtable leader of the remnants of the Liberal Party in British Columbia. Mr. Pattullo is up and doing with a heart for any task. Fortune has kindly created an opening for the realization of his ambition. She has created a vacancy in the Senate, and the empty chair in the Senate must be filled by a politician from British Columbia. There is a Cabinet Minister from British Columbia who, the Liberals have been declaring for a long time, has been "lagging superficial on the political stage." Therefore let Hon. Dr. J. H. King be appointed to the vacant easy chair in the attractive Red Chamber, and Mr. Pattullo will bound with all his characteristic alacrity and irrepressible confidence into the vacant seat in the Cabinet. There is no hope for him in the politics of British Columbia. There may be about as forlorn a hope for him in Dominion politics; but there is always a chance, and there is no chance for a politician who fears to "take occasion by the hand."

So the political pot is boiling and bubbling furiously; but the Provincial Liberal leader is confident of his ability to regulate the fire and keep the cauldron from boiling over and extinguishing the flame of his chances of preferment. Mr. Donaghy and Mr. Faris, and possibly one or two other Provincial politicians who believe they have a pull with the Dominion Premier, may be adding fuel to the flames under the pot. They have other opportunities, for they are lawyers and there are judges approaching the period of retirement. Mr. Pattullo is a mere layman, and has but one chance. The Dominion Government, while it may have been a good enough government during the placid political circumstances of the past few years, is not good enough in the face of a crisis. Its members lack energy and are destitute of enthusiasm. What the Government needs is dash, or, in other words, boldness. Mr. Pattullo has everything the Government lacks. While his enthusiasm may be deprecated, considering the circumstances which engendered it, we cannot expect candidates for office to be extremely fine in their feelings. The Liberal leader with higher ambitions has many friends in British Columbia. If he leaves the provincial political field to become the leader of a forlorn hope in the coming Dominion battle, we shall wish him all the luck commensurate with the desperate circumstances.

POLITICS AND ETHICS

We suppose no country in the world today, with possibly the exception of India, is so interesting to the observer of social, political and economic events as Russia. That is because it is so hard to find out very much about the actual conditions in the mysterious land of the Soviets. Curious people who go to Russia for the purpose of finding out what is going on there never tell the same stories when they come back and report. That curious phenomenon of the human mind may be because the observers are not permitted to see what they want to see. They are only permitted to see what the agents of the Soviet believe they should see. So they all come back and tell contradictory stories.

Reading the different stories told about Russia, and putting two and two together, we have reached the conclusion that there is only one respect in which Eastern Communism has any advantage over Western Democracy. The chief administrators of the Soviet system are content with extremely modest remuneration. They begin with very small salaries, and they never exercise the powers they possess to increase their salaries. Under our democratic system the agents of government are paid what some of us consider very liberal salaries—and about the first thing they do to exercise the powers they possess, or seek the power if they are not in possession of it, to raise their salaries. Representatives in parliament and legislatures and in big city councils and municipal councils all do that—and most of them "get away with it."

There is a tremendous rumour in the good city of Toronto at the present time because the city council has increased the salaries of all its members, from the Mayor down to the controllers and the aldermen. The excitement in the city is so great that it has completely submerged the interest of every citizen in the good old Tory town in the pending Dominion general election. Although the Mayor of the city is a newspaper man, and the man who is alleged to have engineered what they call the salary-grab is also a newspaper man, another newspaper man has applied to the courts for an injunction restraining the aldermen from salary-grabbing. Now the alleged engineer of the machine which ground out the scandal is the most advanced type of the professors of the principles of democracy. He is an advanced Liberal who for years has been preaching the principles of more advanced Socialism through the columns of the radical Toronto Star. Yet for year after year the intelligent citizens of good old Tory Toronto have elected that man, palpably a greedy self-seeker and schemer, to the city council. Now the good people have "got what is coming to them," for the chances are that the enterprising aldermen will get their increased salaries and that before the next municipal election is due all the present fuss and fury will be forgotten and the same men will be elected to office and in process of time will "pull off" another sensational stunt.

Considering the natural tendencies of the democratic times, it is almost impossible to believe that there is one governing body in Canada which has rejected an opportunity to raise the salaries of its members. The Municipal Council of Burnaby, B.C., is reported to have turned its back upon the tempter and resisted the temptation.

There was a report in circulation a short time ago that a "round robin," or a bird of like feather, had been flitting around the halls of the Dominion Parliament and singing a sweet song for the entertainment of the members, but that someone, with the prospects of a general election in his mind, had nabbed the creature and clipped its wings. At any rate the present members and the prospective members will have to be content with and try to get along upon their present rate of remuneration until the political times are more settled and the business times are brighter. The essence of democracy is said to be that nothing of public importance should be done without consulting the people. The objection to the action of the Toronto City Council is that the people who pay salaries should have something to say about the proportions of the salaries to be paid; that if an employee be given the right to help himself to whatever he thinks is his due out of the till of his employer without letting that employer know what he is doing, if the transaction were private courts might give it a very ugly name.

It is said that nothing in this world is quite what it used to be. The current saying is not of general application. The sailor may not find that general appearance be quite what he used to be, but at heart he is the same careless, jovial and thoughtless fellow he always has been. He does not always take the very best care of himself, the natural consequences being that sometimes it is necessary to make provision for his comfort and well-being. There is a refuge for sailors in Victoria, although we are told many people know very little about that necessary institution. However, there actually is the Connaught Seamen's Institute, and it depends upon almost entirely upon the generosity of the public for its maintenance. The "tag day" is not as common as it used to be either, and most of us are thankful for that, because there was for a time a danger of the tagging business becoming a nuisance. All latter-day tag days are justifiable. The tag day which is to be held on Saturday for the Seamen's Institute is more than justifiable. It is necessary, and we trust the public will bear that fact in mind on Saturday next.

The Toronto Mail and Empire says: "It is extraordinary that a public man like former Attorney-General J. Weston Allen of Massachusetts should suggest that the courage and efficiency of British soldiers in the World War suffered from liquor, and it was altogether proper that he should have been rebuked by an American officer who fought in the war and served with the British. It might be asked, if liquor impairs the courage of soldiers, whether it impaired American valor in the Civil War or in the War of Independence?" But what would you when British writers of alleged war books are circulating scurrilous stories about the conduct of British soldiers during the war, and the books are printed by British publishers for the sake of the profit there is in the sale of such filth?

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The nuisance of all this notion of business education, of a training for certain trades, whether of plumber or plutocrat, is that they will criticize intelligence being sufficiently active to intelligently and business properly. Even while he is a baby he is a bank clerk, and accepts the principles of banking which Mr. Joseph Pinstrip is kindly explaining to him. He lives in a cold temple of figures. This is bad enough when we are dealing with the normal sense of national and permanent commerce. It becomes both preposterous and perilous when we are dealing with the mere scramble of speculation and economic illusion which is called business in America and elsewhere. To begin a boy's training by teaching him to admire these things, and then call it business education, is exactly like teaching him to worship Baal and Mahomet, then calling it religious education.—G. K. Chesterton, in the Illustrated London News.

The sound and proper exercise of the imagination may be made to contribute to the cultivation of all that is virtuous and estimable in the human character.—John Abercrombie.

Obstinacy and heat in argument are surest proofs of folly. Is there anything so stubborn, obstinate, doubtful, contemplative, grave, or serious as an ass?—Montaigne.

Each one sees what he carries in his heart.—Goethe.

SCHEME TO HELP BRITISH FARMERS

Government Contemplates Forcing Use of British Flour in Each Loaf Made

(Canadian Press Cable)

LONDON, April 30.—The British Government has definitely decided to establish regulations requiring a minimum percentage of British wheat flour in every loaf made in Britain, according to the agricultural correspondent of the Daily Express today. The newspaper adds the minimum will be a varying, not a fixed figure, and that the Government's policy will shortly be published in the form of a Government "white paper."

"I am told by a reliable authority that an entirely new method for fixing the minimum of English wheat in a loaf will be introduced," says the newspaper's correspondent. "It will be based on a system of vouchers which will be officially issued to millers when they purchase English wheat at the different markets. By the vouchers it will be possible to check the percentage of home-grown wheat in relation to imported wheat the millers have used."

The compulsory minimum percentage will vary each year according to the conditions and supplies of English wheat, and I understand that the minimum of the first part of the year will be 15 per cent and 15 per cent is contemplated."

INDUSTRIES GROW IN THE PRAIRIES

New Factories Are Established and Large Home Market Is Today Being Developed

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 30.—Progress of the manufacturing industry of the prairie provinces during the past year was testified to by Mr. J. H. McKeay, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, at the annual meeting held here today.

Mr. McKeay said many new factories came into production on the prairies last year. The value of products produced in 1929 totaled more than $300,000,000, and all provinces—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta—shared in the development.

Saskatchewan, famed as a wheat producing area, can now also lay claim as a manufacturing province of importance, said Mr. McKeay. Last year the manufacturing industries of the province distributed a payroll of more than $75,000,000, and the general public are rapidly coming to the realization that factories have a definite value to the community. Industrial workers create a "home market."

Mr. A. McKay, of Winnipeg, was elected chairman to succeed Mr. Harvey.

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaels

A BIRD IN A CAGE

Who would wish for a bird in a cage,

The forests so thick and the plains so wide?

It is out of the depths of the woodland green

Or up from the meadows' emerald

That the joyous song of the birds

should float

To the sky's vast arch from each golden throat.

A bird's wide wings to be strong,

Bound by no bars, but always free.

No bird in a cage can ever know

The tides of nature that strongly flow

Through the notes of the wild

into the opalescent dawn.

Or calling at dusk to its mate afar

Under a single silver star.

A bird's heart to be glad

Like the winds of heaven that freely blow.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

Sir,—I wish to thank, through the medium of your press, the many dozens of letters that have been received by me concerning my recent letter regarding the advanced pensioner as I pictured him in his present state of disability. It is gratifying to note that several letters were received from many interested people. Amongst them were several uplifting letters from some of Victoria's active women. This tends to prove the feeling of public sentiment regarding the pensioners of the present day. Therefore, I, similar to several of those who wrote me, look forward to a great measure of relief to be forthcoming from the present legislation.

JACK SANGSTER,
Hon. Secretary C.P.A.
720 Fisgard Street, Victoria, B.C.

IS IT CRICKET?

Sir,—During the recent legislative session an agreement was reached between the doctors and the druggists practitioners, whereby the former withdrew objection to the legalization of druggists' therapeutics under conditions satisfactory to its under conditions and the latter surrendered their right to use the title "Doctor." Subsequently a legal technicality was raised to prevent the use of the title "Doctor" in the bargain, and everything points to the guilty complicity of the drug doctors. The second part of the act was duly enacted to the intense disgust of every sportsman in the game of life.

The druggists practitioners are now being harassed with persecution by the legal representative of the drug men unless they forthwith discard the title "Doctor," and everything points to the making of history in the struggle to maintain liberty in the near future.

It is noteworthy that Medical Bill No. 30 conferred the title "Doctor" upon large numbers of drug men who have never earned the degree of "Doctor of Medicine" at any school, college or university, and depriving large numbers of natural paths of the right to use the title "Doctor," properly conferred upon them by their respective alma maters.

AN APPEAL FROM BRITAIN

Sir,—An appeal for $100,000 is being organized throughout the country for the purpose of working girls' clubs by the National Council of Girls' Clubs. Of this $100,000 only $15,000 is earmarked by the national council for the purpose of working girls' clubs. The organization, the $85,000 is for its local unions and federations of girls' clubs to make it possible for them to:

1. Start new clubs in necessitous and new housing areas.

2. Found holiday camps for the girls.

3. Help existing girls' clubs with the expansion of their work.

The National Council of Girls' Clubs represents over four thousand girls' clubs throughout Great Britain, with a membership of a quarter of a million girls. The constituent clubs of the council are the various national societies who themselves organize girls' club work, and the unions and federations of girls' clubs in the large towns in England and Scotland, e.g., London has twelve federations with three hundred clubs, and the latter has one hundred and five clubs with a membership of over ten thousand girls. This gives a very large number of girls who are in need of help.

The work of the council is to help the girls' clubs to expand their work, and to help the girls' clubs to expand their work, and to help the girls' clubs to expand their work.

are able to procure these facilities yet join in helping the less fortunate clubs; thus the council is enabled to get grants from the Carnegie United Kingdom Trust for club libraries and special hours and terms from the committee of the exhibition of Italian pictures.

There is a crying need for a national expansion of the girls' club movement for its work and for its play, for its national conference of leaders and of girls, and for all those activities as arranged by local unions, such as their interclub competitions, their practical training in household work, cooking and dress-making, home nursing and first-aid. Seventy per cent of the young people who leave elementary schools join neither club, company, brigade, nor any other form of organization. H.R.H. the Duchess of York, president of the national council, has graciously consented to attend a great Girls' National Club rally at the Albert Hall on Saturday, June 28 next, when the council hope to be able to announce the first fruits collected in aid of the national appeal.

The council has just received a pathetic letter from one of the north-western clubs, where the only factory is closing down which allowed the girls to run a club for themselves on its premises. These girls are now without work and faced with the loss of their club. Will you generously help them and many similar clubs who find it impossible to "carry on," and who are doing work of the utmost importance for the girlhood and womanhood of the nation?

MURDER MYSTERY PUZZLES POLICE

Actively Searching for Man Alleged to Have Slain His Wife and Buried Her Body

(Associated Press)

SEATTLE, April 30.—Believing that Everett Frank Lindsay, accused by police of murdering his wife, Audrey Elizabeth Lindsay, may have fled to a considerable distance from Seattle, police officers and members of the King County sheriff's office were busy today piecing together the details of the crime in an effort to find a clue which might lead to his apprehension.

The body of Mrs. Lindsay was found last Monday in a grave back of the barn at the West Seattle home of the couple which they and their foster-daughters had occupied. She was last seen alive on February 19, while Lindsay and Pearl Lindsay, twelve, one of his foster daughters, were last seen at Easter time, Helen Lindsay, eleven, the other foster-daughter, is being cared for by authorities here.

Officers were conducting a search for a woman who signed a chattel mortgage with Lindsay on February 19. Because of the discrepancies between the signature signed on the marriage certificate and the known signature of Mrs. Lindsay, officers believed the signature on the instrument of February 19 may have been a forgery and believed that the woman who signed it might shed some light on the present whereabouts of the fugitive.

A young woman who was questioned by police today convinced them she knew nothing of the murder mystery, and also that she was not the person who had signed the chattel mortgage. Her identity was not disclosed.

English Lawyers Regret Death of Mr. E. Lafleur

(By THOMAS T. CHAMPION
(Canadian Press Staff Correspondent))

LONDON, April 30.—Word of the death in Ottawa yesterday of Mr. Eugene Lafleur, K.C., celebrated French-Canadian barrister, was received with unfeigned regret in London, not only by Canadian lawyers who happen to be here for Canadian appeals before the Privy Council, but by many eminent Englishmen of law with whom Lafleur came into contact during his many visits here.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council never sits on Wednesday, but at the opening of business tomorrow, Lord Dunedin, presiding over the present session, will pay tribute to Mr. Lafleur.

The Times today said Mr. Lafleur combined profound knowledge of the law with great skill as an advocate. His reputation as counsel in the last twenty years was comparable with that of Sir John Simon in England.

England's death rate last year was the highest since 1918.

PROOF of the Unique Powers of VIROL

Only nine years ago, Marjorie McKenna was suffering from the most serious form of wasting. To-day, thanks to Virol, she is, at the age of sixteen, a healthy, well-grown girl showing no trace of the tremendous strain thrown upon her constitution during her terrible illness.

Read This Remarkable Evidence

At 7 years 3 months (Feb. 25th, 1918), Marjorie McKenna was admitted to Rosevale Hospital, Dunfermline, in a state of extreme emaciation and exhaustion (Photo 1). She had no special treatment except Virol, which was given her three daily.

(Photo 2.) Virol not only restored her to health, but, as the Matron of the Hospital certifies, but to-day her doctor is able to write: "I have examined Marjorie McKenna and find that she is in perfect health."

PLANS OUT FOR SEAPLANE BASE IMPROVEMENTS

Alaska-Washington Airways of B.C., Limited, Announces Augmented Service Shortly

LOCAL PRESIDENT APPOINTS OFFICIAL

On the arrival of the president of the Alaska-Washington Airways from Seattle shortly, plans which have been prepared contemplating extensive improvements to the landing base now used by the aerial service near Brackman & Ker's mill will be approved and the work sanctioned, according to Mr. Wallace G. Courtney, traffic manager of the Alaska-Washington Airways of British Columbia, Limited.

The president of the local company, Mr. H. B. Olson, last evening announced Mr. Courtney's appointment as traffic manager for British Columbia, his duties to commence today. It will be Mr. Courtney's business to promote passenger travel by air; and, while his headquarters will be in Victoria, he will travel extensively throughout the province in the interests of the organization.

Starting in a few days, Mr. Courtney stated that the service between Victoria and Vancouver would be augmented with the addition of another daily trip each way, making three trips every day until further notice, with Victoria as the base.

Mr. Courtney is well known on Vancouver Island, having been assistant to Mr. L. H. Tweedie, manager for Home Oil in the Island district, ever since the company opened its offices in Victoria and commenced to do business here. He is a native of the city, being a son of Mr. George L. Courtney, who for many years was local passenger and freight agent for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, and now resident in Vancouver, where he is engaged in the shipping business and represents large interests.

From 1918 until 1927, Mr. Wallace Courtney was engaged in the transportation business, part of the time as a traveling freight and passenger agent for the Alaska Steamship Company, with headquarters at Los Angeles, and later as the agent of the American Express Company at San Pedro, returning from there to British Columbia to enter the service of Home Oil.

FIRST UNITED Y.P. HOLD BANQUET

Happy Function Is Held to Close Season of Many Activities

The Sunday school hall of the First United Church presented a gay scene when 125 young people and guests gathered at the "victory" banquet Monday night.

After the supper Fred McGregor, who presided, opened the proceedings with a jolly song and some clever song hits, and F. J. Mitchell, who presided, requested "Land of Hope and Glory."

The accompanists of the evening were Miss J. Smith and Jack Smith. This banquet marked the thirtieth meeting of a season in which keener interest, better programmes and larger attendances have been strongly in evidence.

The secretary's report, given by Miss Ina Easton, said that there was an average attendance of ninety-six. The character of the meetings was literary, social and missionary, every one of which proved entertaining and instructive. John Taylor, the chairman of the evening, in his brief remarks, paid a tribute to the excellent co-operation of the executive.

Robert Wallace, of the Christian fellowship committee, gave a brief resume of the missionary evenings. Splendid speakers in the persons of Rev. G. C. Fraser, Mr. Bruce Gray and Rev. Bruce Gray were secured. The devotional period played an important part in the weekly meetings. Through the efforts of this committee and the society four pictures were presented to the Sunday school, two delegates were sent to Vancouver in March and an executive member will represent the society at a big youth conference to be held in Toronto in June.

In presenting the report on the debate series Miss Carol Menzies paid a splendid tribute to John Gough, B.A., as convener, for his indefatigable efforts in promoting the debates. The presentation of the Strath Cup to the Pas-a-Pas class, and the McGreggor Cup to the Hopsalo group of the C.G.I.T., was made by F. M. McGreggor. Silver medals were presented by Miss McFarlane to the Misses McDougall and Maline, of the Pas-a-Pas, as winners in the senior series. Special medals "for excellence in debating" were presented by Mrs. W. G. Wilson to the Misses Hay and Innes, of the Axioms. Miss Hay and Miss Innes presented their successful opponents with dainty corsage bouquets.

The warm welcome extended by Rev. Bruce Gray to the many guests of the evening, was replied to by Mrs. Christine, president of the Ladies' Guild; Mr. Strang, of the section; Miss Phillip, of the Y.P.S. of St. Andrew's, and Jack Aylburn, of Christ Church A.Y.P.A. Mr. Gray also welcomed the teachers of the Y.P. Bible classes and expressed his appreciation of their sympathetic support during the year.

William Erith announced that steady progress was being made at the tennis courts. It is hoped that the opening of the courts will take place May 10, with fifty Y.P. members enrolled.

On behalf of the Sunday school R. S. Howell thanked the Y.P. for their generous donation of pictures. He also congratulated them on being the largest Y.P.S. in British Columbia.

A presentation was made by Miss Olive Heritage on behalf of the Prince of Wales New President of Pro Golfers' Body

LONDON, April 30.—The Prince of Wales today consented to become president of the Professional Golfers' Association, succeeding the late Earl of Balfour. The Prince always has taken a great interest in golfing, and besides having held the royal and ancient captaincy has been captain at various times of several metropolitan clubs.

Y.P.S. to Mr. Robinson, church officer, for his kind service throughout the year.

George Gordon ably proposed the toast to "The Church," which was fittingly replied to by Dr. W. G. Wilson, who commended the Y.P. on the high calibre and well balanced nature of their programmes and wished them every success in their Summer activities.

A pleasing incident took place during the evening when Robert Wallace, on behalf of the executive committee, presented Rev. Bruce Gray with a token of appreciation for his excellent leadership and keen interest in their work.

A happy innovation was introduced when the entire assembly was grouped for a flashlight taken by John Smith.

On Monday, May 12, at 6:30 o'clock, a big Y.P.U. banquet will be held in the Sunday school hall of First United Church. An attractive and interesting programme has been arranged.

Obituary

PHIPPS.—The funeral of Rupert Phipps took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Thomson & Fetterley's Funeral Home, Rev. A. deB. Owen officiating. There were many friends present and the casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes. The hymns, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Lead, Kindly Light," were sung. Mr. Lawson Partington presiding at the organ. The following gentlemen were pallbearers: Messrs. Robert Day, John Day, J. J. Johnson, Joseph Day, William Reid and W. Petherbridge. The remains were laid to rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

BREWER.—The funeral of John George Brewer, who passed away in Seattle on April 15, was held yesterday afternoon from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Relatives and many friends were in attendance, and the casket was covered with beautiful flowers. Mr. Myers presided at the organ and rendered "Oh! Gentle Presence" by Mary Baker Eddy. VICTORIA AUTO LAUNDRY WASHES CARS FOR $1.00

Local Firm Inaugurates New Low Price for Washing Cars—Will Employ 12 Local Men

Commenting yesterday the Victoria Auto Laundry, rear of the City Hall on Pandora Avenue, inaugurated the $1.00 Car Washing plan, following out the plan adopted in all leading cities in Canada and the United States.

By washing a large number of cars daily, it is possible to reduce the cost from $2.00 and $2.50 to this new low price. It is expected that a crew of twelve men will be required to take care of the car washing within the next few weeks. In the East $1.00 washing is exceedingly popular, and it is expected that it will become just as popular here once the plan becomes known to Victorians.

EMPRESS TAXI BUSINESS SOLD

SIGHTSEEING CARS INCLUDED, L.I. DISPOSAL OF GRAY LINE CONNECTIONS

Cars Will Be Serviced in Garage in Old Church Building on Gordon Street

The taxi and sightseeing business operated for some time by Mr. H. B. Olson, as the Empress Taxi and Sightseeing Company, Ltd., was taken over last night, at 12 o'clock, by Messrs. J. S. H. Matson and C. L. H. Branson, who acquired the entire stock held by Mr. Olson in the concern.

The purchase included all the concessions controlled and owned by the Empress company, embracing a number of modern taxicabs as well as the Gray Line sightseeing buses. A five-year lease of the offices occupied by the Gray Line on Yates Street, opposite the Dominion Hotel, was included in the deal, it is understood; and the operation of the business will continue from there under the existing name, at least for the present.

A service garage will be opened in the old church building at the corner of Courtney and McKay streets, where the rolling stock will be kept in repair. It is the intention of the new owners to add five new cars to the sightseeing fleet within the next few weeks. These cars will have seating capacity for thirty passengers each, and be adaptable to general transportation practice.

Canadian Group Of Press Union Names Officers

(Canadian Press)

TORONTO, April 30.—The annual meeting of the Canadian section of the Empire Press Union took place here yesterday with the chairman of the section, Lieut.-Col. J. Woods, Calgary Herald, presiding. The report of the honorary secretary-treasurer, W. A. Crick, showed that the section was in a flourishing condition, with an active membership in excess of that of any other portion of the Empire.

Publication by the section of a Canadian news letter for distribution to newspapers throughout the British Empire was warmly recommended and will be continued in future on a monthly basis. All officers were re-elected, including:

Lord Atholstan, Montreal Star, honorary chairman; Lieut.-Colonel Woods, chairman; Mr. J. W. Dufour, Manitoba Free Press, P. D. Ross, Ottawa Journal; Mr. Henri Gagnon, Quebec Le Soleil; Mr. E. Roy Sayles, Renfrew Mercury, executive; and W. A. Crick, Inverness, Inverness, honorary secretary-treasurer.

Festival Chairman Explains Position Regarding Saanich

Mr. H. A. Beckwith, chairman of the Victoria Music Festival Association, wishes to correct an erroneous impression which may be abroad owing to a statement attributed to the Saanich musical committee with regard to participation of the schools of the district in the festival. Mr. Beckwith stated that his committee had never been asked about the matter in question, so could hardly refuse to accept the entry of the Saanich choir. As a matter of fact, he said, the festival committee considered the possibility of having the Saanich schools to sing in the festival. Former Victorian Married Recently

Miss Alice Rosemary Taylor became Bride of Major Gerald Miller.

The marriage took place at All Saints' Church, Marsworth, near Tring, Hertfordshire, England, on April 15, when Alice Rosemary, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. George Taylor, of the Old Manor, Marsworth, formerly of Greyfriars, Chester, and Major Gerald C. Miller, of Ardingley College, son of Rev. Ernest Miller and Mrs. Miller, of Marsworth Vicarage, formerly of St. Barnabas' Rectory, Victoria, B.C., were united in matrimony by the groom's father, Rev. E. Wilson, assisted by Rev. T. E. Wilson, headmaster of Ardingley College, and Rev. D. E. Evans, Vicar of Glyth, North Wales.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with white fur and a cream net wedding veil, held by a shower bouquet of red roses and rosemary.

Her bridesmaids were Miss Muriel Miller, sister of the groom, and Miss Rosalind Taylor, sister of the bride, and Miss Lissett Fowler, all of whom wore red satin frocks and red wreaths in their hair. They wore crystal necklaces and bracelets, the gift of the groom, and carried bouquets of rosemary. Mr. E. Matheson, of Glasgow, was best man.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the bride and groom left for a motor trip through North Devon, and will later make their home at Great Sauceland, an estate mentioned in the Domesday Book, and which is connected with the college grounds, and contains a sixteenth century house in which they will live.

Major Miller was born at Cedar, Vancouver Island, and received his early education in Victoria, later graduating from Oxford. Mrs. J. W. Church and Mrs. J. Mair, of Victoria, were present at the wedding.

WHAT IT IS—

This Great Dollar Sale is the only sale of its kind in the country. It is a wonderful merchandising event that enables you to buy two garments for the price of one, plus a dollar. It includes each and every Spring garment in the store. We confine you to nothing except price. A coat at $35.00 plus one dollar will give you another coat or dress of equal value, or a suit or an ensemble. All you do is pay one dollar more and receive your extra garment. Every garment has its price tag on it. Choose your garment, pay the regular price and take a second one for a dollar.

WHY IT IS—

There are several reasons for this sale. One is the backward season with the result that ever-incoming garments have not gone out as fast as they should. Another is that, it is the policy of Herman's to carry no garments from one season to another. The order has gone out that no Spring merchandise must be carried into the Summer. Every Spring Frock, Coat, Suit and Ensemble must be cleared out of stock regardless. Space must be made ready for the new Summer garments now on their way.

Every garment in this great event is of the highest quality and measures up to high standard of style, quality and workmanship which has been set and maintained by the House of Herman's.

To our regular customers this sale needs no introduction, but for those who are not our regular customers it affords a wonderful introduction to Herman's fashion and value services.

Will Repeat "Aunt Susan's Visit"

The Young People's Society of Emmanuel Baptist Church has consented to repeat the play, "Aunt Susan's Visit," at the Marlborough Hall on Friday, May 2, at 8 o'clock. The play, which is to be given under the auspices of the McKenzie Avenue School, is very humorous and entertaining. In that the old-fashioned and eccentric Aunt Susan visits her nephew, John Thomas, residing in the city. An informal programme of songs, recitations and community singing is offered in the last act of the play, and will be enjoyed.

The McKenzie Avenue School choir will sing its Musical Festival selections, "The Cuckoo" and "The Corn Song," and it is hoped by the staff of the school that parents will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the children sing.

Successful Tea Held
A delightful silver tea was held by the members of the Valentine Harvey Beaumont Bages Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Tuesday afternoon at "Westward Ho," Mount Tolmie, the lovely home of Mrs. Edwin Tomlin. Mrs. Tomlin was assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. L. Douglas, the regent, and Mrs. Shanks and Mrs. Hutchinson had charge of the refreshments. The tea table, most artistically decorated with tulips, narcissi, kerria japonica and green candles in silver sconces, was presided over by Mrs. W. R. Sayer and Mrs. Lytton, assisted by Misses Ruth Shepherd and Marjorie Murray. During the afternoon vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Fred Butterfield and Mrs. Maxwell, and Miss Catherine Craig gave a charming reading. Several members of other chapters were noticed among the guests. Mrs. Brighton acted as treasurer, and Mrs. Hughes convoked the programme.

Sabbath Christening
A christening party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clough, Jr., Hillcrest Road, Tuesday evening. Rev. W. P. Burns, who officiated at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Clough in Carbon, B.C., baptized George, Douglas and Jimmy Clough, John and James Goldsmith, Patricia Palmer and Jacqueline Osborne.
After the christening all sat down to a dainty supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Clough, Sr. and Mr. Thomas Clough, Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne and Rev. W. P. Burns.

Fashion Fancies
By Marie Belmont

Making a pleat in the mode is the latest sartorial gesture. Pleats seem to offer a compromise in the flared and ruffled effects, lending fullness and at the same time relieving the severity of a straight line silhouette. Pleats do not confine their activities to sports frocks and tailored costumes, but animate gowns and flounces of afternoon and evening dress. Illustrating their current importance in the semi-tailored suit group is a lately arrived model sketched today.
This model also serves to emphasize the influence of grey as a spring color as well as wool crepe, that being the material foundation of its style expression. The short jacket is cut with side panels to simulate a bolero and is effectively bordered with black astrakhan. The same fur develops the small standing collar and cuffs. The shaped yoke fits the hips snugly while box pleats divert attention to the skirt.

SHOWER TENDERED TO MISS ENGLISH

NANAIMO, April 30. — At the home of Miss Hannah Hall last evening a most delicious shower was tendered to Miss Margaret English, a bride of the near future. Assisting Miss Hall with the shower were the Mesdames Irene Dunn, Helene Patterson and Gladys Hindmarch. For the occasion the rooms were artistically decorated with baskets of spring flowers and streamers of crepe paper, the color scheme throughout being mauve, rose and Nile green.
On entering the room, the bride-elect was presented with a large decorated box, which was filled with many beautiful gifts. Bridge and whist were indulged in, the winners of the prizes being Miss Lily Piper, Miss Fanny Saunders and Miss Dorothy Devlin. A most enjoyable evening was brought to a close with the serving of dainty refreshments. Miss English is to be married to Mr. Ronald C. Ingham.

"So our engagement is at an end?" said the man.
"It is," replied the girl.
"I suppose you will return the engagement ring?"
"Certainly, if you wish it. Call round some evening and we'll pick it out."

SYNOPSIS

Don Jaime Miguel Higuera, who owns a ranch in Texas, is informed by Captain Hobart, of the Texas Rangers, that Tom Antrim, a sheep raiser, is trespassing on his land. Higuera determines to drive Antrim from his property, regardless of consequences. Hobart, devoted to Higuera, and decides to resign his commission to become manager of the ranch.

CHAPTER V

Don Jaime made a new will that night and handed it to Ken Hobart at breakfast the following morning. "Your instructions are all in that envelope, too," he explained, in case I should be unfortunate. Enrico Caraveo, my riding boss, has the run of things pretty well, and a Caraveo has always been riding boss of the Rancho Valle Verde. I shouldn't want you to make a change, Ken."

"I have some Mexican first cousins; they're emigrants, living in Los Angeles, and I'm leaving them the ranch in trust, with you as trustee and manager. The revolutions have ruined them and I support them now. Socially, I'm proud of them, but the fact remains that they're spendthrifts, and, if they had their way, they'd sell this ranch and the cattle for fifty cents on the dollar in order to splurge again. And a Mexican grandee is much too conscientious a splurger to continue on the job indefinitely. Consequently I, with my acquired American conservatism, must look after the poor devils."

"Don Jaime," Hobart protested,

"I'm your employee now. I'll wire the governor of Texas my resignation and, without waiting for its acceptance, I'll ride back in time to be present when Antrim's sheep come to the guarded water holes."

Don Jaime smiled. "As you will, Ken. While I require no additional proof that I have made no mistake in hiring you, still—he shrugged and grimaced as only a Latin can—"it is nice to have it. As you know, we of the Higuera tribe are easy-going people. We do not require the services of supermen, for we have never had them, but we have been accustomed to loyalty. Because I know you are loyal to your job I have engaged you."

"Thank you, Don Jaime."

"They rode away into the southeast together. In a clump of cottonwoods a hundred yards from the sheep camp they parted. Don Jaime watching while the ranger rode into the camp of the invaders."

A smallish, unprepossessing man, who might have been anywhere between forty-five to sixty years of age stood under a smoke-discolored fly over a small barbecue bit upon which a side of mutton was roasting. As the ranger rode up, this man placed his arms akimbo, and gazed fiercely at the stranger.

"All set for a quick grab for his gun?" Ken Hobart reasoned.

"Willy old wretch!" Aloud he said, "Good morning, Mr. Antrim."

"Hello, yourself," Antrim replied with an assumption of heartiness.

"What's your name when lunch is ready?"

Hobart grinned. "I'm Captain Hobart, of the Texas Rangers. I suspected luncheon might be ready about the time I was due to ride by, so I've invited myself."

"You're welcome, ranger. What's the gossip around your way?"

Hobart dismounted and tied his horse to the breeze. "Nothing much. A little smuggling, a little gun-running, a cattle raid to vary the monotony, a killing. Things are pretty quiet along the border."

"What brings you up this way?"

Antrim was as suspicious as a predatory animal.

"I figured on giving you some sound advice, Mr. Antrim. You're trespassing on the Higuera lands and Don Jaime Higuera doesn't cheer for that. It looks like a private war to me, and as a ranger I prefer to stop a private war before it starts rather than after it's started. You're in the wrong, Mr. Antrim, and I advise you to pull out of here and not come back."

"You came to arrest me for trespassing?" Antrim asked.

"No, of course not. You're grazing your sheep on state lands. I can't arrest you until you drive them on the lands owned by Don Jaime in fee simple—and those lands surround the water holes, whereby Don Jaime controls this range. Even then I'll not arrest you because Don Jaime refuses to swear out a warrant. Says he likes to kill his own rats."

"Called me a rat, did he?" Antrim's cold, pale-blue eyes were very bleak.

"Not at all. That was just my way of expressing the situation. I was speaking in the vernacular. Don Jaime isn't very far from here, Mr. Antrim. He'd like to have you final talk with you. He isn't armed. Suppose you drop that gun over your shoulder and walk out with me to discuss this situation with Don Jaime."

"Reckon I can trust a ranger," Antrim replied, as Hobart exposed his shield. He hung his gun and belt on the projecting snag of a cottonwood and followed the ranger to where Don Jaime Higuera waited.

"Well, Higuera," Antrim saluted him gruffly. His words, his tone of voice, were at once an enquiry and a threat.

"I've come to warn you not to attempt to water your sheep at any of my water-holes, Antrim."

"And if I do?"

"You'll fight to the death for the privilege."

"Well, I can do that too."

"And we understand each other."

"How do I know you own those water holes?"

"You have my assurance that I do. If you doubt that, look up the records at the county seat."

"Your surveys are wrong."

"I am not aware of that. Of course, if they are, you may water your sheep—after you've won your statement. However, your argument is bootless. You do not wish to believe me and I wouldn't believe you under oath. Your life is much too precious to risk it in a brush with these sheepmen. Arrests and trials will follow this fight, and if you are not alive to protest your men, who, then, will protect us? Who will bail us out of jail?"

Don Jaime smiled his lazy smile. "It's easy to see he was very fond of the ranger. "There is sound defence."

"You'll do nothing of the sort, Don Jaime. I shall. As assistant general it is my duty to command. Besides, I know how. Your life is much too precious to risk it in a brush with these sheepmen. "You'll do nothing of the sort, Don Jaime. I shall. As assistant general it is my duty to command. Besides, I know how. Your life is much too precious to risk it in a brush with these sheepmen. Arrests and trials will follow this fight, and if you are not alive to protest your men, who, then, will protect us? Who will bail us out of jail?"

Kim to Noted Minister an English Beauty

MISS DAPHNE GLADSTONE Known for her beauty, is a popular member of London Society.

Don Jaime's white teeth flashed in a smile of vast amusement. "No intelligent man takes a civet cat in his hands, Antrim. I have warned you, in the presence of Captain Hobart, not to trespass on the lands I hold in fee simple."

Without a word Antrim turned and walked back to his camp.

"The man must be a trifle insane, Don Jaime."

"Not at all. He's running a bluff business because he thinks I'm weak. He is willing to be arrested for trespass, provided his sheep may drink. He will bail himself out of jail—all his men, too—and trespass again, and again. The season is a dry one and the feed on his own range is depleted. He must get through the summer some way and hold his flock intact. Well, I'll ride back home and organize my defence."

"You'll do nothing of the sort, Don Jaime. I shall. As assistant general it is my duty to command. Besides, I know how. Your life is much too precious to risk it in a brush with these sheepmen. CHOIR GIVES ENTERTAINMENT

St. Barnabas Choir, Assisted by Soloists, Renders Attractive Concert

A very successful and fully attended concert was presented at St. Barnabas Hall Tuesday evening by the choir of the church. Piano-forte trios by Clara Frazer, Verena Dyer and Dorothy Clark were well played.

Mr. Bernard Howard, a new-comer to Victoria, presented four violin numbers, calling for full command of the instrument and executed them with great technical skill and fine artistic feeling, being splendidly supported by his accompanist, Mrs. Helen M. Simpson. Mr. Harold Groves quite carried the audience away in his humorous interludes. Mrs. Rena Hunt sang "Who'll Buy My Lavender?" and "Absent" in splendid voice and with good feeling.

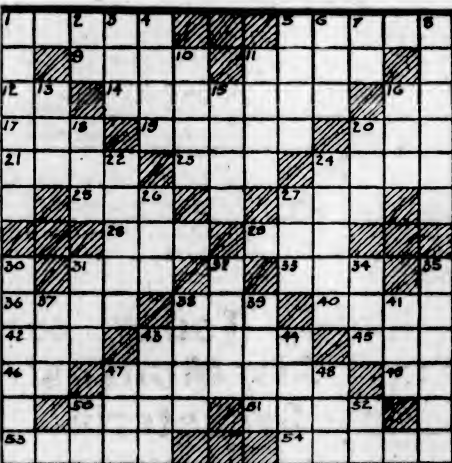

A party from the Victoria male choir contributed much appreciated choruses. Mr. Llewellyn adding a couple of fine solos. By kindness of Mrs. Wilfrid Ord, pupils of the Victoria School of Expression gave material assistance to the success of the programme. Barbara Clous and Billy McPhail contributing recitations, and an amusing little sketch, "The Sausage," was well staged by and R. Walker. A fine climax to the Opal Abercrombie, Billy McPhail programme came with the sketch, "No Smoking Allowed," cleverly concocted for the occasion by the Rev. N. E. Smith. It was a characteristic episode in the home of an out-of-work London plumber and some of his bargees friends. All members of the cast sustained their parts admirably to the delight of the audience. The players were Mrs. Monty Gonnell, the Rev. N. E. Smith, Messrs. T. Emmerson, Monty Gonnell and Wright.

Education in Europe Subject of Addresses By Mainland Visitor

Speaking to the High School pupils yesterday, Mrs. Stuart Jamieson, judge of the juvenile court, Burnaby, took for her subject "The Youth Movement in Europe." This was a protest against the destruction of youth in war, and a desire of the young people of different European countries to get acquainted with one another. She told of the groups of young people hiking about Europe to learn conditions for themselves.

At the Normal School, which Mrs. Jamieson visited following her appearance at the High School, she spoke on "Present Day Tendencies of Education in Europe." She had been greatly impressed by the World Conference on Education at Geneva, where twelve hundred people in attendance felt it was in the best interest of the child to do away with military training in the schools.

HUDSON'S BAY RETAINS MID-WEEK SOCCER TITLE

Griffith Outpoints Gagnon in Return Go Before 20,000 Fans

Sioux City Battler Erases Blot on His Heavyweight Record by Decisively Beating Boston Sailor—Gate Receipts Total Over $73,000

CHICAGO, April 30.—"Tuffy" Griffith bounded back as a prospective challenger for the world heavyweight championship tonight by defeating big Jack Gagnon, his knockout conqueror a month ago, in their ten-round return engagement in the Chicago Stadium.

The battle drew a capacity crowd of 20,500, with gate receipts of $73,484.

Gagnon, the surprising demoralizer of Griffith in their first encounter in which the Sioux City tough one hit the canvas five times, was no demoralizer tonight. Instead, he found the bounding, dancing Griffith an elusive target. Griffith kept his inviting chin tucked close to his waistline, and most of the terrific right hand wallop Gagnon aimed at his jaw swished over his head, or was short, falling harmlessly onto atmosphere.

Griffith won by his superior speed and his ability to step around the Boston ex-sailor. The decision of the referee and judges was unanimous, although a great number of spectators dissented, greeting the verdict with "boos."

Gagnon forced the fighting and was dangerous until the end. He always kept his powerful right hand locked, ready for an opening, but Griffith was a bit too smart for him. Once in the eighth round, however, Gagnon crowded "Tuffy" into the ropes and cracked him with a right to the chin that shook him for an instant. This was Gagnon's big moment but he couldn't cash in on it. After he cracked "Tuffy" he tried to push him away with his open left to get him in range for another shot, but "Tuffy" danced away and then bounded back furiously with a savage barrage of punches to the body.

Gagnon had a pound and a half weight advantage, scaling 188.5 when they weighed in this afternoon. The experts figured Griffith won six of the rounds with three to Gagnon and one even.

Griffith's victory erased the most serious blot on his record since he became a heavyweight. After finding that he could take Gagnon's wallop and remain off the floor, he started in the second round as he intended to put Gagnon on the ropes for keeps. His most effective punch was a left to the head and body with a jolting right cross to follow up. He piled up points with his right hand, and the clinch which kept Gagnon off balance.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

Pelorus Jack—Pelorus Jack was a big grampus fish, familiar to thousands of visitors to New Zealand. For thirty-six years he met almost every ship as it left Pelorus Sound, to enter French Pass, in Cook's Strait, at the north end of the south island of New Zealand. He would keep just ahead of the ship going through French Pass, and then turn around and wait for the next ship. This remarkable fish was regarded as a minor deity by the natives, and a friendly aid to shipping. On May 23, 1906, the New Zealand Government passed a special order in council protecting him.

The Sailor Who Never Saw the Sea—George W. L. Bangs, who is now 83 years of age, enlisted in the Union Navy at Cairo, Illinois, when he was fourteen. At that time the navy was composed of small craft, and these boats were frequently stationed on the navigable rivers. Mr. Bangs joined the navy just two months before Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, and was discharged two months after that event. All of his four months of service were on the river and he has never yet seen the sea. At present he lives at the Soldiers' Home in Dayton, Ohio.

Dick Wilson Chosen Head of Big Four Rugby Loop

Prominent Victorian to Guide Destinies of League Next Season—B.C. Team Will Continue to Use Forward Pass

VANCOUVER, April 30.—R. B. "Dick" Wilson, prominent in Canadian Rugby in Victoria for the past two or three years, was elected president of the Big Four League at the annual meeting here. It was stated that the union would again be composed of Victoria, V.A.C., Marist and New Westminster. President Jack Morgan, of New Westminster, was in the chair.

Dr. Gordon Burke and Sax Crowley were elected vice-presidents, with Jack Benham re-elected secretary-treasurer. Hon. Justice W. A. Macdonald is the honorary president of the league. Wells Gray of New Westminster, Mayor W. H. Malkin, A. W. Housner and Dean L. S. Klink are honorary vice-presidents.

Representatives of the four clubs indicated that their organizations would be stronger than ever this year.

Application has been made to Secretary A. C. Dowd, of the Western Canada Rugby Union, for one or two games with the Hamilton Tigers, Dominion champions, and Wednesday, October 1, and Saturday, October 4, have been asked for. The Tigers require sign-guarantees, those from Calgary, Regina and Winnipeg already having been forwarded. Should they be forwarded, the V.A.C. team will get the assignment.

It has been decided to use the forward pass again next season.

P. WANER LOSES BIG SIX LEAD

Jake Flowers Displaces Pirate Slugger at Head of Group—Babe Ruth Continues to Gain

THE pitchers came into their own against the Big Six yesterday and brought about several changes in the order of their standing and two new members into the Big Six. Babe Ruth, of the Chicago White Sox, once more displaced Charlie Jamieson, of Cleveland, by getting three hits in four times up and went into a tie with Al Simmons at 432.

Jake Flowers, of Brooklyn, hit three out of four, including his seventh double, to replace Fisher, of the Cardinals, as leader in the National League and the Big Six. His average is .409.

Of the regulars, Babe Ruth led with three hits in five times at bat to bring his mark to .348. Simmons hit two of four, and Paul Waner one of two for substantial increases in their averages. Hornsby hit once in four times to put himself at the 240 mark.

SEMI-FINALS OF TOURNEY ARE REACHED

Mrs. Philbrick, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Parry and Mrs. Patterson Reach Semis at Colwood

MRS. WILDING IS DEFEATED

Mrs. Philbrick, defending champion, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Parry and Mrs. Patterson will meet today in the semi-final rounds of the Colwood Golf and Country Club women's championship as a result of the quarter-final victories yesterday morning. While the championship struggles were on, the semi-finals of the second round were played along with the first round of the first flight.

By her sensational victory over Mrs. Wilding yesterday, Mrs. Philbrick is now in a good position to see through for a second consecutive year. Mrs. Philbrick, who captured the medal honors, continued her fine display, and although her opponent played steady throughout, she failed to match strokes with the winner, who ended the match on the sixteenth hole, 3 and 2. Mrs. Hutchinson, another fine match player, accounted for Mrs. Lawson, 4 and 3, while Mrs. Parry defeated Mrs. Hibbert 5 and 4.

Mrs. Hew Patterson, who started out after golf this morning nearly two decades ago, scored the most one-sided victory of the day, ousting Miss Joan Hutchinson, 7 and 6.

This afternoon Mrs. Philbrick will meet Mrs. Hutchinson, while Mrs. Parry and Mrs. Patterson will fight it out in the other semi-final match. Mrs. Morris and Miss Michaels are billed to jaunt over the layout in the finals of the second flight. Both won their games yesterday after some stiff opposition. Mrs. Morris was taken to the twenty-second hole before she could shake off Miss D. Scott.

The semi-finals of the first flight will be played with Mrs. C. E. Wilson facing Mrs. J. H. Richardson and Mrs. Leeming opposing Mrs. Crowe. Yesterday's results and today's draw and starting times follow:

Mrs. Philbrick defeated Mrs. Wilding, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Hutchinson defeated Mrs. Lawson, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Parry defeated Mrs. Hibbert, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Patterson defeated Miss J. Hutchinson, 7 and 6.

MACAULEY FINAL CARD SUNDAY

Willard Wills and Capt. C. I. Mackenzie will meet Sunday in the final round of the Macauley Point Golf Club championship over the thirty-six-hole layout. According to Major Siam, secretary of the club, the pair will get away from the first tee on the initial eighteen at 10 o'clock and start the second lap at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Both players worked their way to finals by virtue of some fine playing, and whoever comes through to the championship will know that he has been through a stiff battle. Wills, who has been knocking at the door of the Macauley title for the past three years, will be out to break the jinx, while his opponent, Mackenzie, is a steady player, and his victory over Norm Wallace, last year's champion in the semi, puts him on even odds to win the honors.

With fine weather predicted, some splendid golf is expected. In 1927 and last year Wills and Wallace battled it out for the title with the latter coming through on both occasions.

CUP FINAL TO BE PLAYED SATURDAY

Victoria High School Soccer Eleven Will Journey to Nanaimo in Quest of Thompson Cup

Victoria High School's soccer team will journey over the famous Malahat drive early Saturday morning, en route to Nanaimo, where they are scheduled to oppose the Up-Island students in a replay of a previous drawn Thompson Cup final. The game at the Royal Athletic Park here recently ended with the score one-all.

Since the first match Coach Roper, of the Victoria High School, has been putting the boys through a number of hard practices and reports that they are in the pink of condition. When the players return Saturday night, the coach feels confident they will have the coveted Thompson Cup in their possession.

The local team will line-up as follows:

Hood, Halbert, Thorpe, McKennie, Kennedy, Patrick, Laird, Chapman, Young, Dawson, Colgate, Bapty and Lund.

Alex Archer and Walter Monson, hockey players, and Dave MacDonald, track man, performed in the game.

Register 5 to 1 Win Over Saanich United In Postponed Fixture

Batchelor's Food Stores Inability to Field Team Next Week Gives Hudson's Bay Pendray Cup for Second Consecutive Year

Register 5 to 1 Win Over Saanich United In Postponed Fixture

Percy Shrimpton's Hudson's Bay midweek soccer eleven annexed their second straight championship of the Wednesday Football League yesterday afternoon by defeating Saanich United, 5-1, on a wind-swept field at Beacon Hill. The departmental store representatives will retain possession of the Pendray Cup which they won last season.

Yesterday's win placed the Bays standing with a perfect record in hand with Batchelor's Food Stores. Arthur Johnston, manager of the latter club, informed league officials yesterday that he would be unable to field a team for the match, and as a consequence the points went to the Hudson's Bay by default. It is these two points that give the Bays their second championship of the midweek soccer league.

The record in the Pendray Cup series by the newly-crowned champions, is like that of the sailors, worthy of comment. In eleven matches, the Bays have lost but one, and that to the Navy by a 4-0 score. Outstanding in this record is the work of Percy Shrimpton, veteran net-minder. In these games this peer of local custodians has been beaten but thirteen times, a little better than one goal in each match. His teammates also have the distinction of scoring the most goals with thirty-three to their credit.

U.S. WALKER CUP GOLFERS OFF FOR O.C.

Team to Meet British Squad at Sandwich on May 15 and 16 Sails From New York City

AMERICANS NOT OVER-CONFIDENT

NEW YORK, April 30.—The hazards of Sandwich, where the Walker Cup matches will be played May 15 and 16, are numerous, but overconfidence is not one of them.

As the crack amateurs left for the second big test of club play, England in eight days, they agreed the British attack at Sandwich will be hard to repulse. The first mass movement on the British golf circuit was made April 22 by a group of women golfers who will go into action tomorrow in a team match with British women.

Both the golf nicks and nippers of "Uncle Sam" are using the team matches as tuning up affairs for the championships to follow, the women at Forbury, beginning at 12, and the men at St. Andrews, for the amateur, May 25, and the open at Hoylake, June 16.

The Walker Cup team sailing tonight: Jones, Harrison R. Johnston, Francis Ouimet, George von Elm, George Volgt, Dan O. F. Willing, Dan Moe and Roland Mackenzie, left in a fine health and spirits, but all said they were glad they would have an opportunity to practice at Sandwich for a week or ten days before the Walker Cup play is started.

Sailing on the same vessel was Lou Dwyer, P.O.A. champion, who will play in the British Open. German open championships, and try conclusions with Abe Mitchell, great British professional, over the long stretch of two two-thirds matches, and a third if the first two are halved.

RANGERS AFTER STIFF GUARANTEE

Touring Scottish Soccer Team Wants $2,000 as Fee for Cost of Gate Receipts to Play Here

VANCOUVER, April 30.—President Ed Dwyer of the British Columbia Football Association, this morning received a wire from L. A. Peto, of Montreal, who is in charge of arrangements for the forthcoming touring Canadian tour of the Glasgow Rangers' football team, intimating that the famous Scottish Club will agree to play in Vancouver on June 7 for a guarantee of $2,000, with option of 60 per cent of the gross gate. Mr. Peto requested a reply by wire accepting these terms, and asked for suggestions as to hotel accommodation in both cities.

President Dickinson has replied to the effect that his association can not agree to all the terms outlined and must adhere to the offer made in his previous wire to Mr. Peto in New York. This wire offered a guarantee of $3,000 with the option of 50 per cent of the gross gate for a game in Vancouver, and $2,000 with the option of 50 per cent of the Victoria gate.

WOMEN GOLF TEAMS READY FOR MATCHES

International Fixture Between British and American Squads to Be Played Today

FOURSOMES TO BE HELD IN MORNING

SUNNINGDALE, England, April 30.—All was in readiness tonight for tomorrow's Anglo-American women's golf matches, the first of their kind and perhaps the forerunner of official international competition such as the Walker Cup matches for men.

The American team, headed by Miss Glenna Collett, will meet the British team captained by Miss Molly Gourlay, in foursomes being played in the morning and the singles in the afternoon.

Today, the greens and fairways of Sunningdale were short and rolled to velvet perfection, and even the rough with golden gorse blooming on the Berkshire hillsides beckoned invitingly.

The competition is styled "unofficial" because Misses Collett and Gourlay have arranged the meeting without official support, the players paying their own expenses to Sunningdale.

John Doeg Engaged

NEWARK, N.J., April 30.—The engagement of Miss Dorothea Scudder to John Hope Doeg, third ranking tennis player in the United States and a member of this year's Davis Cup team, was announced today by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wallace Scudder, of Newark and Rumson, N.J.

Miss Scudder, a debutante two years ago, is a granddaughter of Mr. Wallace M. Scudder, publisher of The Newark Evening News.

Mr. Doeg is the son of Mrs. Violet Sutton Hope Doeg, of Santa Monica, Cal.

LOSS OF BALANCE Sometimes originates here

What are the commonest faults of the average golfer?

Answered by ABE G. ESPINOSA

GOLF

Not gripping the club correctly is one of the common faults of many golfers. An incorrect grip prevents the proper use of the wrists in striking the ball. In the effort to get the wrists in correctly the body sways and loss of balance results. Another common fault is over-swinging causing loss of control and subsequently poor timing.

"MONTANA MOON" DEPICTS GRANDEUR

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has given moviegoers tired of seeing city streets and apartment house interiors a fresh outlook in "Montana Moon," Joan Crawford's latest starring vehicle, which will open at the Capitol Theatre today. For the plot of this picture is laid on a Montana ranch, and its scenes of cattle grazing on the wide plains, its tremendous mountains and its deep canyons make this production worthwhile for its pictorial effectiveness alone.

Miss Crawford is seen as the daughter of a retired cattle raiser, who comes from New York with a party of friends to spend a brief vacation on her father's ranch in Montana. Here she falls in love with a cowboy whose honest, rugged character seems a relief to her after a season of effete Easterners. After she marries him, however, she finds that he looks with disgust on her luxurious, wasteful manner of living and that he will not mix with her friends. When she decides to leave him and to return to New York he plans a strategy, which convinces the girl that she would rather have him for a husband than all the money she can get.

Former Foemen Battling Again At the Coliseum

A couple of jettisoned Don Juans! That's a trifle to characterize Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen as "Sergeant Quirk" and "Top Sergeant Plagg" in the Fox Movietone all-talking production, "The Cock Eyed World," directed by Raoul Walsh will be the feature attraction at the opening of the Coliseum Theatre, Monday.

Based on a story written by Laurence Stallings and Maxwell Anderson, who co-authored the unforgettable "What Price Glory," Lowe and McLaglen are still in the marines, though it is peace time, but plenty of fighting in the tropics—and between themselves.

Pals, buddies, brothers, everything is great until one falls for a "femme." Then each claims priority and the innocent cause of the trouble must stand by while they tell each other apertly.

Of their many love affairs, three stick out prominently; one in the tropics with the gorgeous Lily Damita, another in cold Russia with fascinating Lella Kurnell, and the third in the Congo with a real, real, flip American girl, Jean Barry.

Around these scorching love affairs are incidents of a most human nature, with paths, tears, smiles, romance and thrills.

In addition to the five featured players mentioned, the supporting cast is one of first rank when one recalls the fame of Ed Brendel, Swede comic of vaudeville and musical comedy; Bobby Burns as "Connors"; Ivan Linow, former heavy-weight wrestler known to fame as "The Russian Lion"; and Solid Jimenez, Spanish character actress of "In Old Arizona."

FIRST SUNDAY IN MAY SET ASIDE

Save the Children Fund Renew Appeal for Substantial Aid for Dependents

The advent of May brings to mind the generosity shown in past years by the people of Victoria and Vancouver Island in rescuing children from the wreckage of the Great War. Some 120,000 children of the Near East have been fostered and given a start in life by the co-operation of benevolent people, more especially of the British Isles, the Dominions and the United States of America.

The response to the appeal of the children's need has written one of the noblest chapters in human history. Enormous sums have been raised and dispersed through the Save the Children Fund, the Near East Relief and the Lord Mayor's Fund, in caring for the juvenile refugees, training them in homes and institutions and starting them on a self-sustaining career.

Many citizens of Victoria will recall the "golden rule" dinner, which was held at the Empress Hotel in 1925 at which, when the needs were presented to the assembly, the sum of $2,900 was raised in a short time.

MANY STILL DEPENDENT

While the need is not by any means nearly as great as in the earlier years, there are at the present time 32,000 children who are dependent upon the same generosity that formerly did so much for them and others. It must be remembered that many of those that were rescued were of tender years and must remain wards for some years to come. In addition to these is the recent influx of the last remnants of Armenians from the villages around Kharpout and Diarbekir, who are arriving in Syria at the rate of 50 to 100 a day including the usual quota of little ones. They are destitute and add to the responsibility already undertaken by the Save the Children Fund.

With the lessened urgency of the need that was so poignant seven or eight years ago, there has been a natural lessening of gifts. The appealing face of the Armenian child has faded from the popular imagination, and other interests have taken its place. This is evident in the case of local generosity which at one time poured $100 a month into the office of Mr. F. Landsberg for this purpose, and now dribbles in not more than one-quarter of that amount.

The first Sunday in May has been for some years designated for special offerings for this purpose, although gifts may be sent in at any time. The headquarters in London, England, where it is associated with the Lord Mayor's Fund, while the Near East Relief Fund continues in New York City, The Canadian branch of the Save the Children Fund is located at Toronto, where the honorary treasurer is R. J. Dilworth, 188 Dundas Street. The local treasurer is Mr. F. Landsberg, 737 Port Street.

It may be mentioned that since the separation from the American connection, the Canadian operations have been carried on at only a 3 per cent overhead, as contrasted with 8 or 10 per cent for the American body. All that is sent to Mr. Landsberg is forwarded to headquarters without a cent of cost so that the full amount of the donation may be applied to the object intended.

British Pictures Will Be Featured as Far as Possible by Local Management

BELTONE EQUIPMENT WILL BE USED

After extensive alterations, costing in the neighborhood of $15,000, the Coliseum Theatre will be reopened Monday next by the Empire Theatre Company, Limited. This company is headed by Mr. H. J. Allen, with whom is associated Mr. W. P. Dewese, now operating the Capitol and Royal Victoria Theatres of this city, also the Strand, Beacon and Rex Theatres of Vancouver. This company also operates theatres in other leading Canadian cities.

"It is our intention to show the finest films available," stated Mr. Allen to The Colonist last evening. "If given the support we expect, Victorians will have an opportunity of seeing the best films offered at a new low price."

"British pictures of particular merit will be shown at the Coliseum Theatre," continued Mr. Allen. "We have a connection with several large British picture producers, and we have been informed that several outstanding pictures are now in the course of production and will be available shortly. It is our intention to show as many British pictures, of the better class, that we can obtain."

"During the past year or so there has been a constant demand for the second showing of outstanding pictures. At the present time this is more or less impossible, but with the opening of the Coliseum Theatre we will be able to show these pictures for three days, or longer, if necessary. This depends entirely upon the support we receive from Victorians."

Mr. Allen stated that at the present time "talkie" experts were installing Beltone equipment at the Coliseum Theatre. The Beltone is considered the last word in talking equipment and permits the use of both films and discs. The new machines will probably be ready for tests today.

SCHMELING'S ARRIVAL

Twelve years ago this May the war cry of the United States of America was "On to Berlin." Now Herr Max Schmeling, the "Big Bertha" of Berlin's boxers, has reversed the slogan. He lands with the set purpose of tapping the best heavyweight in the United States on the chin and then taking the crown that Turney tossed away back to the land of pretzels and beer.

Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling may not be the wonder boys of the ring, but they are about the best rather spotty division of heavyweights can show, and if the winner proves he can fight he will probably be saluted as the next champion.

This makes Schmeling's arrival an interesting event in the march of sport, because after various rumors about his condition there will be something of a rush to see how he shapes up after his long vacation. Schmeling is confident he can beat Sharkey. Sharkey is sure he can smother Schmeling. But that is no news either way. If the German can prove he is about as good as he was when he left off against Risio and Paulino he will have his share of backers when he steps into the ring against Sharkey on June 12.

The heavyweights sector has been at such low ebb lately that no hysterical excitement has developed over the possibility of the old corner crossing the water, but there are still a number of citizens who would appreciate a look at one more old-fashioned fight that wasn't 90 per cent flop.

Schmeling proved that he could fight on his last visit. He will now have to prove that he is as good as he was then, and that a number of rumors about his condition are replete with fuzz. He has a pretty good man, on one of his good days, to beat before the strains of "Über Alles" resound again.

FOR THE TITLE OR NOT?

There has already been a fair amount of muttering about awarding the title of heavyweight champion to either Sharkey or Schmeling on the records they have made, but if they are the best, and apparently they are, the headless crown might as well be put back into circulation. Not that it is important either way, but if a better man comes along he can take his shot at the target.

THE HOPE ETERNAL FAN

Hope springs eternal in the baseball breast. That's what makes the turnstiles hum. When the Washington ball club, under the direction of old Barney Johnson, the Coffeyville express, won its eighth straight game the mails became all cluttered up with applications for world series reservations next fall. Never mind the Athletics. They still are a pretty fair ball club, but the Senators had already shown them up.

For that matter Washington's April record was amazing. The Senators carried their share of old-timers who were never supposed to be at their best until warm weather blew in. April was cold and rainy.

WESLEY KETCHELL

LOSES DECISION

OAKLAND, Cal., April 30.—Jack McVey, clever and fast punching negro from New York, demonstrated tonight that he deserves to be ranked among the topnotch middleweights when he punched his way to a ten-round decision over Wesley Ketchell, rough and rugged Salt Lake City boxer, at the East Bay Athletic Club. McVey weighed 158 and Ketchell 160 pounds.

Willard Dix, Bellingham light-heavyweight, knocked out Young Aguilado, Filipino, of Berkeley, in the second round of a ten-round bout.

but the veterans were the ones who got the jump—Goslin, Ruel, Judge, Bludge, Sam Rice, Marberry and others. They made a chilly April look like midsummer. Part of this was baseball skill and part of it was baseball spirit. Old Barney has them hustling for every run. That makes almost any ball club look good. While there are still five months left and the main problem still left in the American League is to surround and bait the Athletics, once they begin to step.

WOMAN TO WOMAN
The point has been made that Great Britain could dig up a higher average of women's golf than the United States.

There will be a partial test, starting at Sunningdale today, ending tomorrow. Glenna Collett has taken over enough women golfers to make up three teams, but one day's practice after arrival isn't enough to iron out the tangles in a sea-leg swing.

Still, it will be an interesting experiment. The British have a big colony of good women golfers, but the average in the United States is increasing every year. Over here, women take more golf lessons than men do. They have more time. And the results are beginning to show. The match at Sunningdale between the two captains—Glenna Collett and Molly Gourlay—will be the day's feature. And even with only one day's practice, such golfers as Helen Hicks, Maureen Orcutt, Virginia Van Wile and Edith Quier should be able to hold their own.

Those who like to fight with the dope, as it concerns baseball, might consider Pittsburgh. With Burleigh Grimes mulling and Pie Traynor laid up, the outlook for the Pirates in April was about as dark as the mouth of a railroad tunnel. Whereupon they turn around and slug their way into the lead against Cubs, Cardinals and Reds.

ROSENBLUM EASY WINNER

Cagey New York Lightweight Wins Decision Over Larry Johnson by Wide Margin

15,000 FANS SEE BOUT AT GARDEN

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, April 30.—Fresh from a night club, trained to perfection on a shave and a haircut, Maxey Rosenbloom, the betting buffoon, furnished high entertainment for 15,000 of the faithful tonight by soundly trouncing Larry Johnson, a long, lean negro from Chicago, in a ring pitched where the more orthodox circus clowns have been tumbling for the past three weeks.

Rosenbloom baffled the usually deadly punching negro with his complete mastery of leather legdemain, and his slapping, cuffing, demoralizing attack. A few weeks ago Larry gave the Harlem neighborhood the roughest engagement Rosenbloom has had here in years until a foul gave Max the verdict in six rounds. Tonight Johnson made the mistake of coming back for more after Rosenbloom had had a chance to think it over. The result was an outclassed negro and a decision after ten rounds that was a formality.

Johnson's trouble was that he couldn't hit the slippery Elm of Harlem, and when occasionally he smacked Maxey a fairly stiff clon, Rosey turned loose a whirlwind attack that promptly wiped out the advantage.

FOUR ON CHIN
Larry, who seems destined to become the next black menace of the heavyweights, made his best showing in the eighth round, when he caught Rosenbloom four solid whacks on the chin.

The sting seemed to have passed from Johnson's punches by that time, however, and Rosenbloom was in little danger. The more generous ringside critics gave Johnson the fourth and eighth rounds and called the ninth even. Rosenbloom won the other seven. There were no knockdowns. Johnson weighed 175, Rosenbloom 172 3-4.

With Johnson out of the way, the path seems cleared for Rosenbloom to battle Jimmy Slattery, recognized in this state as the light-heavyweight champion, in an open-air bout this Summer. The match probably will be staged in Buffalo.

Johnny Indrisano, Boston welterweight, won an uninteresting ten-round semi-final, staged after the bout, when Freddy Fitzgerald, a newcomer to Garden rings from Youngstown, Ohio, there were no knockdowns, but Indrisano did most of the heavy hitting. He weighed 140 1-2, Fitzgerald 144 1-2.

WINS ON FOUL
Bob Olin, former New York amateur star, won from Roy Wallace, Indianapolis light-heavyweight, on the eighth round of a ten-round match. The crowd booed the decision, for Olin seemed to have swooned under a solid right to the stomach. Wallace had an edge in the milling that preceded the eighth.

ROCHESTER, Minn., April 30.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion, today underwent an operation, apparently as a step in a physical check-up preceding a decision as to whether he is to accept a "come-back" fight. He may leave the hospital within a week or ten days.

The operation was successful, they said, and gave the former champion's condition as "satisfactory." Although no statement regarding a "come-back" attempt was made by the former champion on his visit here, it was recalled that on a previous trip for an examination a few weeks ago Dempsey said he expected to begin training soon to determine whether he could return into the proper physical condition.

Reports have been circulated that the former heavyweight ruler might match punches with Primo Carnera, the giant Italian, next Fall.

King George's New Yacht Is Put in Water

COWES, Isle of Wight, April 30.—King George's new yacht Britannia was launched yesterday in readiness for the season's racing. She later was towed to Southampton to have her mast and topmast fitted. On returning to Cowes her fitting will be completed and she will be ready for a special series races in the Solent to try out Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V, which will compete for the America's Cup this Summer. These trysts will begin at Ryde on May 28, under the support of the Royal Thames Yacht Club and will conclude at Cowes, June 9, under the flag of the Royal Yacht Squadron.

JUDGE MAY TAKE REFEREE'S PLACE
Move on Foot to Have Another Judge Take Place of Third Man in Ring by Canadian Body

MONTREAL, April 30.—A suggestion to abolish referees in future boxing bouts under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Boxing Federation and replace the official with a third judge was given the unanimous support of the federation at a meeting here today. The innovation was not definitely ratified, however, but left for the incoming commission.

The meeting also voted in favor of ratification of the tender made by the British organization regarding the holding of British Empire boxing championships.

It was announced that favorable replies had been received from the Premiers of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan to letters asking consideration of the formation of provincial boxing commissions.
